

Association of Pacific Rim Universities (APRU)
Distance Learning and Internet Conference 2003
@ the National University of Singapore

Conference website: <http://www.cit.nus.edu.sg/dli2003>

Presenter: Mr Samuel Ng

Biography

Samuel H. K. Ng has been involved in technology-based learning systems for the last 15 years. As the current Division Director of Educational Design and Technology in the Institute of Technical Education, he oversees the development of new and innovative educational practices with learning technologies. Since joining ITE in 1998, he has been chiefly responsible for the institution-wide development and implementation of the IT Masterplan for teaching and learning. Prior to joining ITE, Samuel was with a large IT company, designing, engineering and implementing enterprise-wide learning system for government ministries and corporate businesses. Samuel received his B.Sc (Hons) in Electrical and Electronic Engineering from the Loughborough University of Technology, UK, in 1998 and Masters of Business in Information Technology from the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology, Australia, in 1994.